at PrizePicks

Remote

At PrizePicks, we are the fastest growing sports company in North America, as recognized by Inc. 5000. As the leading platform for Daily Fantasy Sports, we cover a diverse range of sports leagues, including the NFL, NBA, and Esports titles like League of Legends and Counter-Strike. Our team of over 450 employees thrives in an inclusive culture that values individuals from diverse backgrounds, regardless of their level of sports fandom. Ready to reimagine the DFS industry together?

Are you an inquisitive, analytical Analyst? We are looking for a data-centric role person to build analytics tools and workflows. We want someone who can flex their SQL skills and analyze essential data to help guide decision-making for fantasy gaming scenarios. You will be part of our Business Intelligence team reporting to the BI Product Manager.

What you'll do:

- Work with the business to analyze and recommend new product features
- Develop data collection, data analysis and business intelligence reporting systems to measure and inform business strategy for the Business Intelligence team
- Create presentations and written documents and present to both technical and non-technical audiences promoting ideas and opinions.
- Collaborate with decision-makers to understand their goals and identify opportunities to use data to develop new insights and improve our results

What you have:

- 3+ years of business analytics or data science experience in a marketing-adjacent, e-commerce or B2C environment
- Advanced ability to draw insights from analysis supported by data and present them to the team members and senior management
- 2+ years of experience in Product (Fintech or B2C apps preferred)
- Experience using data visualization tools (Tableau preferred)
- Experience with Python, R or SQL

Where you'll live:

- This is a remote position with occasional travel to Atlanta, GA

Benefits you'll receive:

In addition to your great compensation package, we'll shower you with perks including:

- Company-subsidized medical, dental, & vision plans
- 401(k) plan with company match
- Stock options and bi-annual bonus
- Uncapped PTO to encourage a healthy work/life balance (2-week MINIMUM required!)
- Generous paid leave programs, including 16-week paid parental leave and disability benefits
- Workplace flexibility and modern work schedules focused on getting the job done, not hours clocked
- Company-wide in-person events and team outings
- Lifestyle enhancement program
- Company equipment provided (Windows & Mac options)
- Annual performance reviews with opportunities for growth and career development

You must be authorized to work for any employer in the U.S. We are unable to sponsor or take over sponsorship of an employment Visa at this time.
